Supervisor Knabe made the following statement:

“The County of Los Angeles has an interest in recruiting and retaining qualified, experienced and motivated employees. We are the largest single employer in the five-County region of Southern California. There is an ongoing need to provide employee benefits that foster a commitment to County service.

“‘Group Banking Day’ is one way to increase employee morale by providing a service that meets their financial needs without undue and burdensome costs. The County has partnered with six banks with which it does business to sponsor a ‘Group Banking Day’ that will offer a wide range of information on the banking services available.

“On Thursday, October 26, 2006, six banks: Bank of America, Bank of the West, Citibank, U.S. Bank, Union Bank, and Wells Fargo Bank – will participate in ‘Group Banking Day’ on the Mall of the Kenneth Hahn Hall of Administration.”

Therefore, on motion of Supervisor Knabe, seconded by Supervisor Burke, unanimously carried (Supervisor Antonovich being absent), the Board proclaimed October 26, 2006 as “Group Banking Day” in the County of Los Angeles, and encouraged employees to avail themselves of the various services provided by the six banks the County has partnered with for “Group Banking Day”: Bank of America, Bank of the West, Citibank, U.S. Bank, Union Bank, and Wells Fargo Bank, to be held in the County Mall area at the Kenneth Hahn Hall of Administration on October 26, 2006.
